Financial Arts

Financial Arts, Inc. would like to announce the celebration of Jack Fagen's 50th anniversary of being in the Life and Health insurance business, as well as Jack and Charlottes' 50th wedding anniversary.

Jack started as a Life and Health insurance agent in 1971, shortly before he and Charlotte were married. Jack contributes much of his success to moving to DeMotte in 1972. He and Charlotte did everything and purchased as much as possible in DeMotte. Jack was one of the founders of the current Chamber of Commerce and was also a charter member of the DeMotte KV Rotary Club.

In 1974, Jack opened his first office in DeMotte. It is kind of interesting that State Farm and Financial Arts opened their offices in DeMotte on the same day. After 50 years in the business, Jack is still the owner of Financial Arts, and is actively involved in the operation, just with more time off. Financial Arts, Inc. is currently thriving while being managed by two of Jack and Charlotte's children, Dan Fagen and Valerie Fagen. As with all successful businesses, none of this would be possible without having other great employees, currently we have Karen Retzlaff, as well as Ashlea Mickle, working for us.
